Now a Part-time Writing Job from Home Pays in Full...

Dear JoAnn,

Are you overworked and underpaid?

My name is Mindy McHorse, and I used to work like a horse! But one day I stumbled across a part-time writing job opportunity. It pays like a full-time job!

You don't need another part-time job to make ends meet. You don't have to work yourself to death. I only put in about 20 hours a week now!

I know most people need two or more incomes just to live today. My work days were 10 hours long with the commute. My husband worked two jobs. We were so tired and barely saw each other.

I had two spaniels that I had to kiss goodbye every day. We wouldn't be able to start our family if things stayed the same. But I found a way. What if I could show you a better way too?

PICTURE THIS FOR YOUR FUTURE

- You DON'T HAVE TO drag yourself to one or more jobs per week.
- You CAN HAVE MORE of that much-needed sleep or time for yourself.
- You DON'T HAVE TO barely get by.
- You CAN HAVE MORE than enough to live and enjoy life on your terms.
- You DON'T HAVE TO wish you had enough money to buy things.
- You CAN HAVE MORE than enough for anything you desire.
- No more money worries about... (fill in the blank).

WHAT ARE THE OPPORTUNITIES?

Well, I have great news for you. There is a better way! I received a letter about that part-time writing opportunity. Now, I call it part-time because you don’t need to work 40 hours for full-time pay.

Paul Hollingshead sent me a letter that encouraged me to join The Barefoot Writer Club. This club consists of people who want to gain more freedom in their lives through writing.

Paul himself shared how he was stuck in a job leading to nowhere. He worked at a grocery store stocking shelves for next to nothin’. He really hated that job. But in less than a year, he managed to turn his life around.

Suddenly, he was making six figures from home as a freelance writer. He wasn’t an experienced writer. He was trained how to write a simple, persuasive letter. And just like that, he started collecting more than $300,000 per year.

He shared that he wasn’t the only one making that kind of money. Thousands of people across the country were doing the same thing. They didn’t have more education or experience than he did.

He was paid $15,000 for one letter and $30,000 in royalties. He received royalties because the letters brought in paying customers. If the companies kept using his letters, he was paid royalties.

He didn’t need to write many letters to reach a six-figure income. It was receiving the royalties that brought in over $300,000 per year!

Ed Gandia is another Barefoot Writer member who earned $163,481 in his first full year as a freelance copywriter. But to Ed, the freedom in his life is priceless. He gets to spend more time with family and not stress about money.

Starr Daubemire, another Barefoot Writer member, was able to take a few months off just to paint and write in Italy. She says that she’d never experienced this kind of freedom before.

IS IT REALLY THAT SIMPLE?

You’re probably wondering how any of this is possible. Like, “Why should I believe you?” or “Sounds too good to be true.” I don’t blame you. I was skeptical too. I didn’t respond to Paul’s letter right away.

I never thought of myself as a writer. But his letter really spoke to me. So instead of tossing it, I decided to keep it and reread it now and then. It didn’t cost much to join, but it was a big decision for me.

Finally, I brought the letter to my husband to have him read it. Money was too tight to make any decisions without his input. I waited, practically holding my breath while he read the letter.

I asked what he thought? He saw the opportunity and said we didn’t have anything to lose because of the one-year money back guarantee.

And that was just the beginning...

It took me three years to make a six-figure income ($114,000) as a Barefoot Writer Club member.

But three years later:

- No more $20,000 credit card debt!
- No more $80,000 student loan debt!
- Retirement didn’t seem possible. But I feel semi-retired NOW!
- And we have three beautiful children!

There's a Shortage of Copywriters! We Need You Now!

Dear Bernadette,

Did you know there's a shortage of Copywriters? What's a Copywriter? Well, they're the happiest group of paid writers around. They're responsible for some of the commercials you see on TV, as well as those credit card offers you receive in the mail. More Copywriters Needed!

Why are they so happy?

Because they work from home! They make as much or more than doctors or lawyers. But they don't need to work long hours as doctors and lawyers. Or deal with "those" student loans.

Wouldn't you be happy if you could take vacations whenever you wanted? Wherever you wanted?
Wouldn't you be happy if you didn't have to worry about money, bills, or job security?

What would make you happy?

Why is there a shortage?

The demand is greater than the supply. Many writers or would be writers don't know about Copywriting. And those who think they do, fall short. They don't understand the formula for basic Copywriting. That's where we come in.
